

This appointment system is intended for eligible applicants who have not yet been interviewed, or who were not able to meet their original appointment dates.

If you meet ANY of the following conditions, you should NOT schedule a visa interview appointment:

- (A) You have been interviewed and refused an immigrant or a K visa.
- (B) You are the principal beneficiary and have failed to reschedule your visa interview appointment within a year from the original appointment date.
- (C) You are the principal beneficiary and have failed to contact or communicate with the Embassy for more than a year from the time you were informed that your case is ready for final processing.
- (D) You are a K2 derivative applicant and have failed to apply for a visa within a year from the time of the Principal Beneficiary's visa issuance.
- (E) Your case is not current for processing based on the current cut-off dates. For more information about priority dates and cut-off dates please click here.
- (F) You have yet to submit the required documents either to the Embassy or the National Visa Center.
- (G) You have yet to receive a notification from the Embassy or the National Visa Center regarding your eligibility for scheduling an interview.

If you schedule an appointment, and any of the above conditions apply to you, you may not be interviewed, even if you present yourself at the Embassy on the scheduled date.

If you are not certain whether or not you are eligible to schedule an appointment using this system, you may speak to our representative at the call center who will assist you with your scheduling concerns.
